Harris Receives Professional Award from National Meat Association

Kerri B. Harris, executive director of the International HACCP Alliance, received the 2003 Professional Award from the National Meat Association on Tuesday, March 4 during the NMA Board of Directors Meeting in Las Vegas, Nev. The award was presented to Harris by Rosemary Mucklow, executive director of the National Meat Association, in recognition of her dedication and valuable service to the meat and poultry industry. During this year's NMA convention, Harris served as a roundtable panelist, speaker, education committee member, and exhibitor in the NMA MEATXPO.
