A special invitation to join the International HACCP Alliance

Please give your strongest consideration to becoming a member of the International HACCP Alliance. Membership is available in the following categories. Please check the appropriate category for your organization.

- Industry Association (dues requirements below)
 - University Members (no monetary investment required)
 - Professional Associations (no monetary investment required)
 - Government Cooperators (no monetary investment required)
 - Third Party & Private Companies ($500 dues per year)
 - Educational Foundations* (no monetary investment required)
- *Requires board approval.

The investment requirement for industry associations is based on their total annual budget figures. The schedule is as follows:

| Total Annual Budget | Proposed Dues |
|----------------------------|----------------------|
| To $49,999 | $100 |
| $50,000 - 99,999 | $600 |
| $100,000 - 499,999 | $1,750 |
| $500,000 - 999,999 | $3,000 |
| $1,000,000 - 4,999,999 | $7,500 |
| Greater than $5,000,000 | $10,000 |

In-kind contributions by Educational Foundations will be defined on an individual and annual basis. Dues are based on the calendar year, and invoices will be sent to members each year.

INDUSTRY ASSOCIATIONS:

Industry associations members represent the different areas/aspects of the meat and poultry industry. Individual meat and poultry companies are not allowed to join the Alliance since they are represented by the industry associations; however, many of the committee members are from industry. The industry associations are responsible for disseminating Alliance information to their members.

The Alliance is funded primarily from investments made by the industry association members on behalf of their members. For more information on joining as an industry association, please contact Dr. Kerri B. Harris.

UNIVERSITY MEMBERS:

University members represent food science, animal science, veterinary medicine, and other areas relating to HACCP and food safety. The universities are one of the primary providers of HACCP/food safety training. Many of the university members serve on Alliance committees.

To join as a university member, notify Dr. Kerri B. Harris of your interest in participating in the Alliance. Please include the name, title, address, phone, fax, and e-mail address of the contact person.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS:

Professional associations also represent their membership on the Alliance. The professional association representatives serve on Alliance committees and help disseminate information to their members.

To join as a professional association member, notify Dr. Kerri B. Harris of your interest in participating in the Alliance. Please include the name, title, address, phone, fax and e-mail address of the contact person.

Information

GOVERNMENT COOPERATORS/ADVISORS:

Government cooperators include agencies, including foreign governments, that impact the safety of the meat and poultry industry products and have activities relating to HACCP and food safety. Representatives from these agencies are included on Alliance committees.

To join as a government cooperator, notify Dr. Kerri B. Harris of your interest in participating in the Alliance. Please include the name, title, address, phone, fax, and e-mail address of the contact person.

THIRD PARTY/PRIVATE COMPANIES

Service members represent consultants, laboratories, suppliers, and other entities that provide services for the meat and poultry industry related to HACCP and food safety. Service members may participate on Alliance committees. The service category has an annual membership fee of $500.00.

To join as a service member, notify Dr. Kerri B. Harris of your interest in participating in the Alliance. Please include the name, title, address, phone, fax, and e-mail address of the contact person along with your membership dues.
